

Human rights are not a utopian ideal. They embody an international consensus on the minimum conditions for a life of dignity. Respect for human rights requires determination and cooperative efforts. It also requires legal frameworks at the national and international levels within which individuals and groups can claim their rights.

Madame Louise Arbour
January 2005

COLOUR INNOVATIONS

www.colourinnovations.com

We congratulate Madame Louise Arbour on receiving the Canadian Race Relations Foundation's Award for Lifetime Achievement. Her work as United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights is making significant improvements in the lives of many throughout the world. She is a credit to Canada and an exemplar of the strong tradition of human rights that all Canadians cherish.

Colour Innovations is proud to be the Print Sponsor of the CRRF Awards Gala.